

We only select the best... but you have to apply!

Valuation Tribunal President

£106,812 pro rata

The Judicial Appointments Commission invites applications for the position of Valuation Tribunal President for England. This is a part-time post, working an average of 3 days per week depending on the operational needs of the Tribunal, and offers a salary of £106,812 pro rata. You will be based in London or one of 11 Valuation Tribunal Service offices in England. Frequent travel to London will be required for those based elsewhere.

The Valuation Tribunal will hear appeals in England against decisions relating to council tax and business rates. As judicial head of the Tribunal, the President's post provides an exciting and challenging opportunity to set the direction and performance of the new Valuation Tribunal for England. The role will involve sustaining and enhancing public confidence, leading and inspiring a volunteer workforce, strengthening judicial independence and promoting effective working partnerships with others. The President will also be a member of the Valuation Tribunal Service Board. This appointment is for a minimum of five years.

For an application form and information pack, including the full eligibility criteria and information on part-time working, please visit our website www.judicialappointments.gov.uk email us at jaas@jac.gsi.gov.uk or call us on 020 7210 0123. Staff will be available to answer calls from Monday to Friday 9am to 5pm. Please use reference 00365 on all communications.

The closing date for applications is 14 July 2008.

www.judicialappointments.gov.uk

