

CONDITIONS OF APPOINTMENT AND TERMS OF SERVICE
RECORDERS

INTRODUCTION

1. This document sets out the terms and conditions of your appointment as a Recorder.
2. Section 21 of the Courts Act 1971<sup>1</sup> provides for the appointment of Recorders by the Crown on the recommendation of the Lord Chancellor.
3. Appointments are subject to:
  - a) Current terms and conditions which are set out in this document, or in any letters of appointment, and
  - b) Judicial policies and procedures applicable to your appointment.
4. The Lord Chancellor may make changes to your terms and conditions of appointment. You will be given notice in writing of any changes and when they will take effect.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

5. You are appointed as a Recorder and are required to undertake the duties as set out in your job description on appointment. The Lord Chief Justice may require you to carry out any other reasonable duties as and when required. Any changes will be discussed with you and you will be notified in writing.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE LCJ

6. The Lord Chief Justice, as President of the Courts of England and Wales and the Head of the Judiciary, has responsibility for a number of issues including the allocation of work within the courts, the deployment of judges, their well-being and training and the provision of general advice and direction.

7. The Heads of Division, the Senior Presiding Judge, Presiding Judges, Family Division Liaison Judges, Supervising Chancery Judges, Resident Judges, Designated Civil and Family Judges, are appointed as leadership judges to assist the Lord Chief Justice in discharging these duties.
8. They are supported by Her Majesty's Courts and Tribunals Service (HMCTS) staff. On occasion the Lord Chief Justice (either personally or through the delegated authority given to the Judges appointed to the posts mentioned above) may issue, as he/ she considers appropriate, both instructions to you, and guidance, on matters falling under his/ her responsibility.
9. You are required:
  - a. to comply with any guidance or instructions issued by, or on behalf of, the Lord Chief Justice,
  - b. to follow the deployment directions of the leadership judges appointed to posts specified in the above paragraph, and
  - c. to assist the Senior Judiciary, and the leadership judges, to ensure the effective and efficient delivery of justice.

OTHER JUDICIAL WORK

10. If you also hold a salaried judicial office, the Lord Chancellor and the Lord Chief Justice will expect you to give priority to the duties of that office.

FEES

11. Your appointment is non-salaried. You will receive a fee for day(s) you have sat and for those days you attend training (see paragraphs 26 to 29). The fee you receive is subject to tax and National Insurance deductions. Information on the current tax treatment can be obtained from the Ministry of Justice website.
12. If you are a Crown servant in receipt of a salary you will not normally receive additional remuneration for your fee-paid appointment.

PENSIONS

13. You will be eligible to be a member of the Judicial Pension Scheme 2015 (JPS 2015), which became operational on 1 April 2015, unless you are an existing member of an alternative judicial pension scheme.
14. As an alternative to membership of that scheme, it is possible to become a member of the Partnership Pension Account.
15. Further details of the pension arrangements applicable to you will be provided under separate cover.

SICK PAY/ ABSENCE

16. You are entitled to claim sick pay when you are unwell and cancel pre-booked days including training days. This is unless the pre-booked day would have been cancelled by HMCTS for any other reason without payment of a cancellation fee.

TRAVEL AND SUBSISTENCE

17. In certain circumstances, travelling expenses and night subsistence allowances may be payable in connection with sittings, attendance at training courses and other judicial duties. Further information on travel and subsistence is available from your local office or business area.

MATERNITY, PATERNITY, PARENTAL AND ADOPTION LEAVE

18. You are entitled to maternity, paternity, shared paternity and parental and adoption leave. Details of the operation of these entitlements can be obtained from the Ministry of Justice website.

APPRAISAL & MENTORING

19. Your appointment requires performance consistent with the high standards expected of judicial office holders. The Lord Chancellor and Lord Chief Justice expect all office holders to comply with, and participate in, any appraisal and mentoring schemes, established by the Lord Chief Justice.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST, GRIEVANCE, CONDUCT AND DISCIPLINE

20. You must not sit in a judicial capacity in any circumstances which would lead an objective onlooker with knowledge of all the material facts to reasonably suspect that you might be biased.
21. You must notify your leadership judge at the earliest opportunity if you are aware of any matters relating to:
- a) Conduct which may affect your position or may reflect on the standing and reputation of yourself and the judiciary at large.
  - b) Disciplinary matters that are governed by regulations and conduct rules made under sections 115 and 117 of the Constitutional Reform Act 2005.
  - c) A grievance; details of the relevant procedure can be obtained from the Judicial Office.
22. You must read and comply with: a) the Lord Chancellor's policy entitled "Lord Chancellor's Policy on Conflicts of Interest, Conduct and Discipline" which can be obtained from the Ministry of Justice website; and b) the Lord Chief Justice's "Guide to Judicial Conduct" which can be obtained from the Judicial Office website.

LOCATION/PLACE OF WORK

23. This appointment carries an obligation to sit at any court centre in England and Wales. The Lord Chief Justice may from time to time deploy you in jurisdictions in which you are authorised to sit as the business reasonably requires.

HOURS OF WORK

24. You are required to work such hours as are reasonably necessary to complete your duties, which will be communicated to you by leadership judges and HMCTS on their behalf.

SITTINGS

25. You will usually be required to make yourself available for 30 sitting days a year. This figure may vary in accordance with business needs and change from time to time. Minimum and maximum numbers of sitting days will be reviewed at least annually and will be notified to you where they vary from this expectation.
26. HMCTS will use its best endeavours to allocate sittings equally but cannot guarantee a set number of days in any year.
27. Once a Recorder has agreed his or her sitting dates with the Regional Office, it should be exceptional for them to withdraw from their engagement and they will be expected to keep these dates free of other commitments. If there should be any unexpected clash between planned judicial sittings and a professional engagement, a Recorder should refuse the latter provided they can do so without prejudicing the interests of their lay clients. If this is impossible, the professional commitment will have to take priority, but as much notice as possible should be given to HMCTS to improve the chances of a replacement being found.

TRAINING

28. You are required to undertake such programmes of induction training and continuing education as the Lord Chief Justice or the Judicial College may from time to time prescribe.
29. If without good reason you fail to do so the Lord Chief Justice may take disciplinary action. This may include suspension from sitting, removal from office or a complaint to the Judicial Conduct and Investigations Office.
30. You will receive a full day's fee for each day of training.
31. Further information on judicial training can be obtained from the Judicial

College website at the following link: <https://judicialcollege.judiciary.gov.uk/>

ANNUAL LEAVE AND PUBLIC HOLIDAYS

32. Your fees are calculated by dividing the salary for the equivalent full-time office (Circuit Judge) by 210. The effect of this divisor is that a pro-rata allowance for annual leave and public and privilege holidays is incorporated into the daily fee.

DURATION OF APPOINTMENT

33. You are appointed for a four-year term. Your appointment may be renewed, provided that:

- a. You are under the upper age limit,
- b. You continue to satisfy the conditions or qualifications for appointment, and
- c. There continues to be a business need for your appointment.

34. All decisions not to renew will be taken by the Lord Chancellor with the agreement of the Lord Chief Justice.

35. You may choose to end your appointment by resignation or retirement at any time, provided you have given the specified notice periods in paragraph 35 to 36 of these terms and conditions, or by declining to accept any renewal on completion of the four-year term.

RETIREMENT AGE AND NOTIFICATION OF INTENTION TO RETIRE OR RESIGN

36. Your appointment will end on the day you reach the age of 70. The Lord Chancellor will only extend the appointment of a Recorder in exceptional circumstances.

37. If you intend to retire before reaching the age of 70, you are required to provide 6 months notice in writing.

38. It is open to you to tender your resignation from office at any time during your tenure. You are required to provide 6 months notice in writing.

39. Without prejudice to any other consequence, if you fail to provide the necessary notice your pension arrangements may be delayed.

REMOVAL FROM OFFICE

40. The Lord Chancellor may terminate your appointment and remove you from your office on the following grounds:

- a. incapacity;
- b. inappropriate behaviour, including
  - failure to comply with training and appraisal requirements,
  - failure to comply with sitting requirements (without good reason),
and
  - failure to observe the standards reasonably expected from a holder of such office.

41. All decisions to remove are taken by the Lord Chancellor with the agreement of the Lord Chief Justice.
